

Women's Guild News

InStep TOGETHER

for the future of women in the Reformed Church in America

Thanks to All

Thank you to all women of the Massapequa Reformed Church for their continued contributions and dedication to helping the community during the holiday season. The Women's Guild was pleased to be able to help a great number of individuals this past year. These benevolences are only possible when we work together. Thank you to all who give their time or money or both for others.

Mother Child Brunch

Please join us on February 10 from 10 am till noon for the Mother-Child Brunch featuring a Valentine craft and child-friendly food.

Sign up in Fellowship Hall during Coffee Hour.

New Bible Study Topic

Women's Bible Study will be focusing on the Old Testament Book of Ruth. This short book demonstrates that there was always a pocket of the faithful left in Israel. The book tells a simple story and is interesting reading. Naomi and Ruth show wisdom and stamina in the presence of a difficult situation. All women of the church are welcome at this new study held on Tuesday mornings at 9:00.

Check www.massreformedchurch.org for updates.

Let it Shine

Join us for a retreat at the Little Portions Retreat House in Mt. Sinai on May 18 & 19. Mary Addams Schaefer will present Learning to Let Our Light Shine. Scholarships are available for this event.

Women's Conference

All women of MRC are invited to attend the Alive with Christ Women's Conference which will be held in Chicago on July 19-22. Formerly known as the Triennial, the Women's Conference attracts thousands of women from Reformed Churches throughout the US.

Here is a sample of discussion topics offered:

- Called By Whom to Do What? —Recognizing Your Call
- Lifelong Learning
- Heart Wisdom: What to Say When You Don't Know What to Say
- From Dark Clouds to Silver Linings: Living with Loss
- Growing Up Too Soon
- A Visual Exposition of Old and New Testament Scriptures Through Expressionistic Art
- Unintentional Intolerance

Interest piqued? Visit <http://www.rca.org/> ALIVE for a complete list of seminars and forums, and online registration packets. Packets will also be available in Fellowship Hall during Sunday Coffee Hour.

Scholarships are available for this event. 2/07
